ORDER:

The Director of Industries, Government of Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad in his letter 1st red above has informed that, the Scientist –D & Zonal Officer, Silk Conditioning & Testing House, Central Silk Board, in his Letter dt: 09.10.2015 has informed that, Ministry of MSME has approved Dharmavaram in A.P as one of the cluster to be developed on the ancillary components of silk handloom weaving. As per this, 3 acres of land had already been handed over by District Collector, Ananthapur & Director of Sericulture, Andhra Pradesh to their office at Dharmavaram. Based on it, a Diagnostics Survey Report (DSR) had already been submitted to ministry of MSME, New Delhi who in turn approved the DSR and the scheme in Dharmavaram with instructions to go further. Accordingly soft intervention; like training, exposure visits etc., was approved in the 35th Steering Committee meeting held on 15.01.2014 at a total cost of Rs. 18.2 lakhs with Government of India contribution of Rs.13.8 lakhs and Rs.4.36 lakhs by cluster units/association/respective State Government. The soft interventions will be done by their office with beneficiary/State contribution of Rs. 4.36 lakhs which has to be borne by the respective state where the scheme is being implemented. As the Department of Sericulture, Government of Andhra Pradesh, have stated that, they have some financial constrains in their budget, the said amount may be sanctioned from Industries and Commerce Department, as a special case to push forward the scheme in the state.

2) He has also stated that if agreed, the said amount may be released by the Industries and Commerce Department, to Director, Central Silk Technological Research Institute (CSTRI), Central silk Board, Ministry of Textiles, Government of India, Bangalore. RTGS in favour of Central Bank of India(CBI), CSB Branch, Bangalore, CA A/c NO. 1123960044, IFSC Code. CBINo283975.

3) He has further stated that the special purpose Vehicle (SPV) will be formed Central Silk Board, after approval by MSME on remittance of Rs. 4.36 lakhs due to received from the Industries & Commerce Department, with total cost of Rs. 18.2 lakhs. It, involves various stoke holders in the scheme and all likely members have to be e-registered with District Industries Canters (DIC), Ananthapur on free of cost basis as most of the SPV members are of micro scale players.

4) According to the proposal of the Industries and Commerce Department, the Finance (FMU- Rev- Inds) Department have issued BRO vide G.O Rt. No. 1650, dt: 29.06.2016, granted an amount of Rs. 4,36000/- as additional funds in relaxation of Treasury control and quarterly regulation orders, pending provision of funds by way of supplementary grants during Financial Year 2016-17, and requested the Industries and Commerce Department, Government of Andhra Pradesh, to accord administrative sanction.

5) Government after careful consideration of the matter, here by accord administrative sanction to the Director of Industries, for release of an amount of Rs. 4,36,000/- (Rupees Four lakhs Thirty Six Thousands) additional funds to the Director, Central Silk Technological Research Institute (CSTRI), Central silk Board,

Ministry of Textiles, Government of India, Bangalore. RTGS in favour of Central Bank of India(CBI), CSB Branch, Bangalore, CA A/c NO. 1123960044, IFSC Code. CBINo283975.
